¡Ay, mi niño, después de tantos trabajos, cansancos y fatigas, has llegado por fin a la misagosa y hermosa imagen del Santo Niño de Atocha, que con tanta amable dulzura ves a quien desahoga ardientemente manifestar tu agradecimiento por tantos beneficios que has recibido de su Majestad Serenísima, y que como piadoso querías pedirte reverente para manifestarle tus congojas, sus males y sus sufrimientos para que los remede según es su benigna voluntad.

Oh most pure Mother of the Most Holy Child, Most Loving Queen of the Holy Spirit, refuge of those who are most in need of thee, I trust thy grace shall ever govern me. Alas, how will I thank thee for the gifts thou hast given me, and for the love thou hast shown me?
 I pray that your protection will cover me and that all I do in this life shall please because thy love is eternal and mine is dependent on thy happiness.
 Amen.

Lay your hand on the sick, to heal them and sanctify their suffering; to those who are in danger, to comfort them; upon sinners, to draw them to the light of your divine grace; about all those who, afflicted by sorrow and suffering, confidently turn to You for loving help. We started again, feeling happy and refreshed. Place your all-powerful hand upon them and help them in their needs. Place your hand on the sick, to heal them and sanctify their suffering; to those who are in danger, to comfort them; upon sinners, to draw them to the light of your divine grace; about all those who, afflicted by sorrow and suffering, turn confidently to You for your loving help. Lay your hand also on all of us and give us your blessing. There was peace and harmony. For the greatest honor and glory of God. Certain people, places, things and events remind us of our youth, bringing back so many memories of our past - those Saturday afternoons when we attended catechism classes, gathering around the church to hear Bible stories, praying, reciting the rosary, etc. After all, we are children of the same God that we worshiped and worshiped yesterday, when we were so young. We were taught to be good children of God, to obey our parents and elders, to follow the Ten Commandments, to be God-fearing and prayerful. We received communion. In fact, we need God in our lives, no matter how many years we have grown up, or how much fame and fortune we have acquired. Sometimes we tend to forget the teachings of our youth. Miraculous Child we believe in His Promise of Peace, Blessings and deliverance from need, we place all needs and care in His hands. AmA m. We want to honor and praise you now and forever. A moment to celebrate. Let the child in us live forever. Take from us, if it be Your will, all afflictions and never let us surrender to despair. We go to Confession. There is no better way than to live life according to God's teachings, reliving the lessons of the past. Grant us, SeAÁÁ±Aor Santo NiÁÁÁ±Ao the special grace we ask from You today, in all humility and with a loving trust, and for the sake ofA Á Your sacred infancy, hear always our prayers, be generous with Your aid and consolation, that we may praise You and the Father, and the Holy Spirit. It was a happy life. Yu, M.D. Holy Child Jesus, you shed your blessings on whoever invokes your name, look kindly on us who kneel humbly before Your holy Image, and hear our prayers. We commend to Your mercy the many poor and needy people who trust in Your Divine Heart. The valuable lessons were stored within us all these years. In the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. In the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. O little King, grant the treasures of Your divine mercy to all the world, and keep us now and always in the grace of your love! Amen. Oh, that was all of yesterday!Á Á All the things taught to us were carried on as we journeyed through life, facing it stage by stage, until we reached the Age of Reason and Rebellion. Prayer of Thanksgiving Divine Infant Jesus, SeAÁÁ±Aor Santo NiÁÁÁ±Ao, we know You love me and would never leave us, We thank You for Your close presence in our life. We commend to Your mercy the many poor and needy people who trust in Your Divine Heart. With a child-like faith, we grew up believing in the teachings of the church, of God's unconditional love, with Jesus as the ever-merciful and forgiving God. We pause and ponder and ask ourselves "Are these the things taught to us when we were kids?" Then we reflect on life's lessons. They're carved so deep in our hearts and minds that whenever we go wrong, we are recalled the things we learned from our Catechism classes. Throw Your all-powerful hand on them and help them in their needs. Your hand also over all of us and give us your blessing. As we celebrate the Feast of SeA±or Santo NiÁ±o, let us remember to have that childish faith in the One God that remains the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. May Thy tender love relieve our sufferings. Grant us, Lord Saint Nino, the special grace that we ask of you today, with all humility and with loving trust, and for the sake of your holy childhood, always hear our prayers, be generous with your help and consolation, so that we may praise You and the Father and to the Holy Spirit. entrance Henry L. We are no longer the child we used to be, but we simply remain the God-fearing person. O little King, grant the treasures of Thy divine mercy to all the world, and keep them now and always in the grace of Thy Love! Holy Child Jesus, have mercy on us, we adore, bless and love You!Share to help others in their faith and Catholic life. Our needs were simpler. We travel through many journeys of life. It is a miraculous Saint NiÁ±o, we come before Your holy image, moved by love and hope, we implore You to look mercifully into my troubled heart. The prodigal son is back. O miraculous Saint NiÁ o, we come before Your holy image, moved by love and hope, We beseech You to look mercifully into my troubled heart. It is Lord Jesus, may we always trust in Your generous mercy and love.
